With regard to allocation of Christian candidates in St. Stephen's College, the following is stated.

1. The college had sent the list of the candidates, Program-wise, to the University of Delhi on August 28, 2024.
2. While doing the first step of validation of the list sent by the St. Stephen's College, the University identified certain crucial and alarming aspects owing to which the list could not proceed for the allocations. Clarification was sought from the college immediately. The Principal, St. Stephen's College reverted at 04:34 pm, Saturday, August 31, 2024. The Principal, St. Stephen's College agreed to the identified mismatches.
3. In the initial list sent by the College, no specific details of B.A. Programs Combination were provided, owing to which the University could not allocate the candidates. The College revised the list and it was received on August 31, 2024. In the revised list as well, it has been found that in certain B.A. Program Combinations no seat has been allocated, while in some more than sanctioned seats were allocated to Christian Candidates.

4. Similarly, in some sought after Programs like B.Sc.(H) Chemistry and B.Sc.(H) Physics, seats have been left vacant despite having CUET qualified candidates in both the Programs.
5. The University is doing further validations on the latest lists sent by the College.
